Incorporated Organisation No SC038200

Kirkcudbright Jazz Festival well worth a visit

Kirkcudbright is situated at the mouth of the River Dee in the Dumfries and Galloway Region of Scotland. This historic old Royal Burgh comes alive every spring and summer with a host of events and exhibitions. There are loads of high quality accommodation in and around the town, shops, pubs, and cafes for everyone, and a castle and a working harbour too. It has a long historic background having been granted Royal Burgh status in 1455. In the centre, near to the harbour, is the imposing McLellan's Castle, which sits at the junction of the main thoroughfares and is surrounded by old properties, many of which are painted in stunning colours, giving the town a bright and cheerful aspect. There are many places of interest in the near vicinity and also within its boundaries. AND FREE PARKING EVERYWHERE!!!
