Jazz at the Jaguar Club Coventry

Don Mather's Swingshift Band has been enjoyed by audiences since its launch earlier in the year. The combination of the West Coast type arrangements written by a top American Arranger with Great Guest Stars drawn from the cream of British Jazz artists makes for a very interesting musical event. The Jaguar Club has been refurbished to a very high standard and it is the ideal place to hold a Sunday Lunchtime Session. The next guests are Alan Barnes in October and Dave O'Higgins in November.

UNIVERSITY OF BIRMINGHAM

Kenny Wheeler

In partnership with

University of Birmingham

Music Society

Friday 30 November
7.30–9.30pm

University Jazz Orchestra

We bring the University's recently renamed Jazz Orchestra to the city centre as they perform music from the late Kenny Wheeler and Grammy award winning jazz pianist Jim McNeely. Jonathan Silk and the University Jazz Orchestra take on McNeely's album East Coast Blowout, an album originally recorded by the WDR Big Band with special guest soloists. For this interpretation of this album, we feature members of the Jazz Orchestra as the album's five tracks flow together as an extended suite, full of dynamic and rhythmic variation and dramatic sweep.

Expect intensity, improvisation and interaction across this evening of jazz as we pay tribute to the legends and reinterpret the modern.
